

Endpoint Subscription (EPS) for Ricoh

UCS Advanced subscription service for P3500M

RICOH
imagine. change.

Our specialized subscription service enables secure and seamless video calling from your Ricoh Unified Communication System device via quality-assured global cloud video network.

Upon activation of EPS for Ricoh, Ricoh Unified Communication device joins our cloud service behind your firewall. All calls are encrypted and carried through dedicated global video network with utmost security instead of the public internet. EPS for Ricoh provides secure and high-quality video performance for your domestic and international video calls without needing to invest in internal infrastructure.

Highlights

Unlimited video calling on secure global network

Quality-assured global video network is a dedicated network for UCS Advanced. The connection is secure and not easily affected by internet as your Ricoh Unified Communication System device will be registered behind your company's firewall upon the activation of EPS for Ricoh. You can have video calling on the global network as much as you want inside and outside of the company.

No Hassle Activation

We make it easy for a hassle free activation process. By changing the settings in the P3500M to the device default to EPS the machine will be ready for endpoint video calling.

Unique Video Address*

With EPS for Ricoh, your Ricoh Unified Communication System device is assigned a unique video address that allows the device to make a point-to-point call with any standards-based videos (SIP/H.323) as well as UCS Advanced users.

Automated Contact Directory

The contact directory automatically updates with users, virtual meeting rooms, and other video addresses registered in your company network. Search and connect with point & click dialing.

Superior Quality

EPS for Ricoh provides 1.5 Mbps speed for better and superior video quality
